

PACE: LD

For parents of children or youth with a diagnosed learning disability

Description: This interactive parent advocacy course will assist parents to understand different types of learning disabilities; develop an understanding of legislation, systems, and resources that may affect and assist children and youth with learning disabilities; understand their rights as a parent of a child or youth with a learning disability; and to become a more confident advocate for their child(ren). This course is facilitated by a local psychologist and LDAWE's Executive Director.

Fee: $150 for non-LDA members or $100 for LDA members per 5-week session. Subsidies may be available.
